

PHAT ASS ON THE WEB

Our sexy surfer searches for the best black BBW sites on the World Wanton Web! BY POWERBOSOM

Welcome to another mind-blowing installment of Booty Call on the Web, where I review the hottest big-ass Web sites around.

We all want to be escorted to hot, freaky, online sex, and that's why you trust me to bring the goods. Sex, sex, and more sex—it's everywhere on the Internet. You can't escape it, and sometimes you get inundated with a trillion pop-ups touting everything from a pill to make your dick grow (yeah right!) to creams that will make your breasts bigger. That's a product I will never need. Mother Nature got carried away when she bestowed a pair of 46GGG whopping heavy hitters on me.

Last week, I was porn surfing for you when a green pop-up flashed across my monitor. I was about to hit the exit button, but nestled between a dozen or more thumb-nails was a brown-skinned beauty with hazel eyes. Her penetrating gaze stirred my pussy, and for some reason she looked familiar. I quickly hit the little photo and was transported to <http://www.IceCreamsFantasyPalace.com>, where I learned that I had met this vivacious lady a few years ago in a chat room and then in real life at a Big and Beautiful dance party. She sizzles with sexuality and always stands out from a crowd.

Now, let me tell you a little about this lioness before we get into the Web site stuff. She is a 28-year-old Gemini with awesome measurements. Her breasts are size 48EE and her ass is a whopping 62 inches around. When I caught up with Ice Cream for the review, she was very candid and told me she was extremely bisexual and loved the feel of a big, thick woman with a fat clit. Her favorite pastime is fucking, sucking or masturbating, so I guess she doesn't knit or crochet like the usual Southern belle in Texas. That's good for us!

I won't waste your time or mine reviewing content that won't get the juices flowing, so here's my arousal scale for rating Web sites.

☆☆☆: It's getting warm down there!

Ice Cream is a sultry woman with a full, generous body, and her Web site's free tour is exactly like her. Pink is her favorite color, so when you click on her you get a pink and white flashy site filled with women in all shapes, colors and bra sizes. The entry page tells us to prepare for thousands of downloadable images and plenty of steamy video clips to satisfy your need for live action. That was enough to further wet my panties, because Ice Cream's soft, cushiony butt was certainly making me moist.

The preview consisted of 34 thumbnail photos with the promise of more to come. The lady didn't lie when she stated that her main hobbies were sucking, fucking and masturbating, because she gives it to us right away. I flipped from one page to another, playing clit tag and trying to fill up on her essence. There are many plump, big-tit, big-butt women on her Web site, including the fabulous Honey Juggs, who commands a full rack of 46GG breasts. You'll also find Exotic Ice, Cocoa Puff, Shadow, Tina, Collette and an abundance of other leading ladies.

I had to get off the tour page and finish up the review before things got out of hand in my bloomers. After discovering the neat navigation guide at the top, I jumped over to Ice Cream's "about me" section. This is where I wanted to be. The page is covered with photos! You finally get to see her in and out of clothes, covered in baby oil, lathered in whipped cream, eating pussy and, of course, her passion, sucking dick. I came across a caption that read, "I have a 62-inch massive load waiting for you inside, so come in and spank me." You never have to tell me anything twice, so jumping into the premium section was second nature. True to her word, the members-only section contained thousands of photos, guest models, steamy video clips, Web shows, weekly updates and chat. Unfortunately, her cam show was scheduled for later in the week when I visited, but you better believe I will be back to see Ice Cream in action.

Each section is detailed and organized. No wondering where to go next or how to get back to something, because the Webmaster lays out the galleries to pop open in a new window so you never get lost. There are a couple of stupid pop-ups, but get rid of them and get right back to the booty. There are many galleries of the featured model in all sorts of attire and erotic poses. The quality of the photos ranges from okay to excellent, but the quantity is perfect. I have to say that whoever photographed Ice Cream knew how to capture her assets so that she seemed to stand off the page. Her curvaceous body, plump breasts and mind-boggling ass can keep you planted in front of the computer for hours.

Her Web site is a steal for $18.95 for a one-month subscription compared to other premium sex portals, but her ass is grade A-plus. There were a couple things I didn't like, especially the large graphics. Ice never needs dressing and fluff surrounding her, because she can hold her own with the best on the Net. I continued to explore and found another decadent gallery where our insatiable seductress was in the midst of a blow job session. That's nothing out of the ordinary for her, but what stopped me from going to another page was the look of abandonment on her face. She was totally turned on. Kudos again to the photographer for capturing this vision!

Ice Cream loves a good fuck, and it shows throughout her Web site. She originally started online like many others with a Yahoo club, and from that platform of thousands of members she progressed to this Web site. At the time of this review she has over 50 galleries with a flavor for every fetish. Did I mention that not only does Ice dominate the premium section, but she also has a wagonload of black, white and Latin chicks?

I was about to leave and join my lover in bed, but I looked back up top to see the video clip section. How the hell did I miss that? I found quite a few clips, ranging from about 15 seconds to almost a minute. The content and clarity were superb. Each clip ran the gamut from softcore to explicit fucking. You can spend countless hours masturbating in this area, because each clip I downloaded was hotter than the previous one. I had a favorite, but the one that blew me away had Ice Cream on her knees, her ass facing the camera as she rode a dick without a care in the world. Her thighs quivered, and her magnificent butt was a view to behold. You can e-mail her at icecream\_emodel@yahoo.com.
